Present-Day Words of the Lord

Press Towards the Mark

Hear My words, hear My voice and press toward the mark. Glorious days are just over the horizon, says the Lord.

Don't let your hunger die. Continue to hear and continue to hearken. I am about to kindle a fire that cannot be quenched and the world will come, for the world needs what I am birthing in this day. Don't run—don't run away backward, but run forward. Press toward the mark.

If You Will Hear the Truths That Will Be Taught

It has been in people's minds for generations how things should be, how religion should be, and how revival should be, but hear what I have to say: I will pick you up into a place that is in Me if you will let Me, and this place has as much to do with love as it does My power. And it is not the kind of move that is caused to be dispersed, but if you will hear the truths that will be taught, you will be on such a foundation, you will be immovable and you will get to see with your eyes what I have been talking about for these last decades, says the Lord.
